STATEMENT OF :-

ARRIGUCCI Angiolina,	Female
Gebbia,	34 years.
Civitella.. Arezzo.

Who saith,

I am unmarried and until 29 June 44, I kept house for my brother ARRIGUCCI Quintilio. He was 36 years old, a farm labourer and we had lived in GEBBIA all our lives.

About 0700 hours on Thursday 29 June 44, I attended Church at CORNIA leaving my brother at home. On coming out of church I saw flames and smoke rising from the valley near MORCAGGILO

I made my way home and told my brother what I had seen. He decided that there was no cause for alarm and went into the fields to work.

I hid in the woods nearby for about an hour and a half and then decided to return to my home.

At the entrance to the village I saw an armoured car with two German soldiers standing near it. I was detained for about an hour by these soldiers and then taken to my home by another German soldier. I cannot describe these soldiers.

I was there set free. I made a search of the vicinity for my brother but could not find him or obtain any information of his whereabouts.

On Saturday 1 July 44, I went to a hut at LA VALLE, about one kilometre from SAN PANORAZIO. This had been burned and the roof had caved in.

Inside the hut I saw eight bodies of Italian men. All had bullet wounds in their bodies. I knew all these men when they were alive. They were, 1- my brother ARRIGUCCI Quintilio, my cousin ARRIGUCCI Orlando aged 62 years, a farm labourer, PRATESI Silvestro, BIAGIOTTI Giulio, All these four were natives of GEBBIA.

The other four were natives of BADIA AGNANO and were living in GEBBIA as refugees. They were 1- CARDINALI Guglielmo, MAFFEI Emilio and the others were two men whom I knew by their christian names which were Marino and Tobia.

With assistance I carried my brother's body to the chapel of the cemetery at CORNIA.

My brother was not a Partisan. He had many times given food/....
